

REGULATIONS FOR USING THE PARK AT THE SILESIA CULTURE CENTRE IN NAKŁO ŚLĄSKIE, 1 PARKOWA St.

The park at the Silesian Culture Centre is a recreational and leisure area. It constitutes a general good for all inhabitants of the Tarnogórski District. The Park area is used for recreation and organization of cultural and leisure events. Other events can be organized in the Park with the consent of the Manager.

§1

The following are prohibited in the Park:

- a) littering the area,
- b) destroying and damaging vegetation and digging up the ground, as well as trampling lawns,
- c) destroying and dislocating benches, baskets and other equipment as well as park buildings and facilities,
- d) burn bonfires without the consent of the Park Manager,
- e) leave burning objects,
- f) consume alcoholic beverages, smoke tobacco and use narcotic drugs intoxicants,
- g) stay under the influence of alcohol or drugs,
- h) making noise, as well as using sound equipment without the consent of the Manager,
- i) behaving in a way that disturbs peace, rest and safety of other Park users,
- j) bringing in and using pyrotechnics, explosives and harmful chemical substances,
- k) entry of any vehicles without the consent of the Park Manager, except for wheelchairs or other vehicles which have the consent of the Park Manager as well as service vehicles of the municipal management and organizers of events taking place on the premises of the Park or in the building of the Centre during carrying out the works,
- l) blocking evacuation routes,
- m) walking dogs without a leash and without a muzzle,
- n) trade and service without permission of the Park Manager,
- o) placing signs, inscriptions and announcements without approval of the Park Manager,
- p) organize events without approval of the Park Manager.

§ 2

The use of the park is at the user's own risk or at the risk of responsibility of the child's guardian.

§3

Due to the large number of old trees in the park, special caution should be taken: during strong winds, rainfall and storms.

§4

The users of the Park must not, by their behaviour, prevent or restrict the use of Park facilities to other users.

§5

During events organised in the Park, the organiser has the right to remove from the venue persons whose behaviour disturbs the public order or who behave inconsistently with the regulations of the Park.

§6

The Park Manager hereby reserves the right to claim compensation for any damage that is made in the Park.

§7

Violation of the regulations is subject to punishment in accordance with articles 143, 144, 145 of the Code of Offences.

§8

The duties of the Park Area Manager are performed by the Silesian Cultural Centre.